

Q	Answer	How to get it
1	C	Paragraph 1 says she opened at midnight instead of dawn.
2	D	Paragraph 1 says that for the first time Idris was old enough to help.
3	E	Comparing the ovens to dragons using like makes it a simile.
4	A	Paragraph 2 lists weighing flour, lining trays and brushing buns with egg.
5	B	Paragraph 3 says the mixer clicked and stopped.
6	C	She meant the job could still be done the old way, by hand.
7	D	Paragraph 4 says they kneaded side by side until Idris's arms ached.
8	A	Paragraph 4 says the fishmonger appeared with a pot of sweet tea.
9	B	The bun leaned to one side like a tower about to fall: crooked.
10	E	Paragraph 6 says she set it right in the middle of the window.
11	E	Her words, a first bake deserves the best seat, show pride in Idris.
12	C	He had never felt so tall: a way of saying he felt proud.
13	A	The story is about Idris's first bake, the broken mixer and his pride.
14	B	The correct spelling is February, with an r after the b.
15	D	The correct spelling is island, with a silent s.
16	D	The comma follows the opening phrase After the show.
17	C	Children is already plural, so the apostrophe goes before the s.
18	E	Its shows belonging. It's always means it is.
19	A	The past tense of do is did. Done needs a helper such as have.
20	B	A noun names a person or thing. Baker is a person; dough is one too.
21	B	Circled is what the gulls did, so it is the verb.
22	E	Words ending in f often change to ves in the plural: loaf becomes loaves.
23	D	In case means as a precaution: you take it before you know the weather.
24	A	A statement simply gives information and ends with a full stop.
25	C	Compare letter by letter: cru words come before cu words, and crumb comes before crust because m comes before s.