

Q	Answer	How to get it
1	C	Paragraph 1 says the bee carries wonderful news but cannot speak, so she dances.
2	E	Paragraph 2 names the Austrian scientist Karl von Frisch.
3	D	Paragraph 2 says the work earned him a Nobel Prize in 1973.
4	B	Paragraph 3 says the bee traces a pattern like a figure of eight.
5	A	Paragraph 3 says everything that matters is packed into the straight run.
6	E	Paragraph 4 explains straight up means towards the sun.
7	D	Paragraph 4 says the longer the waggle, the further the flowers.
8	C	Paragraph 4 says the round dance is for food very close to the hive.
9	A	Paragraph 5 says they read the message through touch and vibration.
10	B	To decode is to work out what a message means.
11	D	Paragraph 6 links the dance to pollination of orchards and fields.
12	E	The passage informs the reader about the dance language.
13	C	The final sentence says you need neither words nor a large brain to share an idea.
14	A	The correct spelling is rhythm: r h y t h m.
15	B	The correct spelling is knowledge, with a d before the g.
16	D	The extra information which cannot speak needs a comma on both sides.
17	A	One bee owns the wings, so the apostrophe goes before the s in bee's.
18	B	Than is used for comparing. Then means next in time.
19	C	The sentence describes a present habit, so it needs checks.
20	E	Tireless describes the workers, so it is an adjective. Golden is one too.
21	B	Quickly describes how the bee returned, so it is an adverb.
22	C	Words ending in a consonant plus y change y to ies.
23	A	Yet joins two ideas that pull in opposite directions, like but.
24	E	A command tells someone to do something and starts with a verb: Watch.
25	D	The correct spelling is library, with two r sounds: lib-rar-y.