

Q	Answer	How to get it
1	D	Paragraph 1 describes the small silver disc won fifty years earlier.
2	B	Paragraph 2 says the cabinet had not been forced and lists the three key holders.
3	E	Paragraph 2 names the head, the deputy and the caretaker.
4	C	Paragraph 3 says the ring showed the medal was lifted straight out.
5	A	Paragraph 3 says it smelled sharply of silver polish.
6	C	All the windows were shut from the inside, so no outsider had entered.
7	B	Paragraph 4 says he was seen alone near the hall, and rumour did the rest.
8	D	Paragraph 4 says she checked the facts and the medal was still in the cabinet when choir began.
9	E	Her point is that suspicion is not evidence.
10	A	Paragraph 5 says they found the shallow box under the stage.
11	A	Paragraph 5 explains the caretaker's two trips and the forgotten box.
12	D	Paragraph 6 says it went back gleaming.
13	C	The assembly's second lesson is exactly that.
14	E	The correct spelling is definite, with i on both sides of the n.
15	B	The question mark sits inside the speech marks, and asked has no capital.
16	C	The notebooks belong to two detectives, so the apostrophe follows the s.
17	E	We're is short for we are. Were is the past of are.
18	B	The sentence looks back from the past, so it needs had been.
19	A	She stands in place of Layla's name, so it is a pronoun.
20	D	Beneath tells you where the medal was, so it is a preposition.
21	E	Words ending in a consonant plus y change y to ies.
22	B	Until links the leaving to the moment the medal turned up.
23	C	It asks for information and ends with a question mark.
24	A	me comes before mi, and among the mi words mirror comes before mistake because r comes before s; my comes last.
25	D	The correct spelling is eruption: tion, not tsion.